The U.S. Embassy in Mexico City is home to one of the largest and most important U.S. missions in the world, with approximately 190 U.S. Embassies worldwide. Mission Mexico administers the largest American Citizen Services operation, immigrant visa operation, fraud prevention program, and non-immigrant visa operation. Represented in the ranks of the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City are various executive branch agencies with offices and representatives, including the Department of Justice. GEL will be hosting Christina Vejar, the Department of Justice Attaché to speak about the mission, responsibilities, governmental role, the U.S & MX relationship, and what it’s like working for The Embassy.
